

TROOPER TACTICAL POUCHES

DUTY GEAR

Overview

HighCom Security offers high-performance tactical pouches that feature lightweight water-resistant Cordura® nylon construction for maximum comfort and long-lasting wear. They allow endurance and rugged durability under extreme conditions and resistance to abrasions, tears and scuffs. Ounce for ounce, Cordura® out-performs other fabrics: it is 2x more durable than standard cotton, 3x more durable than standard polyester and 10x more durable than cotton duck. Single, double and triple pouches provide security and accessibility for a range of tactical equipment, using MOLLE (Trooper Series) attachment systems per military specifications.
